

The Detroit French History Cruise

Sunday, July 20, 2025
3:15 p.m. – 5:30 p.m.

All Aboard! Get your tickets now for the ever-popular Detroit French History Cruise on the Diamond Belle, which will take you along Detroit's main highway of the 18th century – The Detroit River.

The bilingual tour (in French and English), created and presented annually by John Cooper since 2014, features the key historical points of interest during the French era and the early settlement of Detroit. Historical narration is enhanced and accompanied by the traditional French songs of the Straits.

Always a fun and informative afternoon, you'll experience a bit of old French Detroit and a few surprises, too! Come aboard and discover what life was like on the Detroit River in the 18th century.

Boarding the Diamond Belle begins at 3:15 p.m. at the Stroh River Place Dock, 2680 Atwater Street, Detroit. Onboard snack and drink bar.

Host, John Cooper
